

Confidentiality Agreement

As a volunteer for Family Promise of Lake Houston, I agree to keep all information regarding the current or graduated families of our Network in total confidence at all times. Any information shared at a gathering/event or via FPLH staff will not be discussed or disseminated to any other person. If at any volunteer event I recognize any past or present participants, I will not reveal their status with the agency nor discuss or disclose that information with any other person.

Additionally, I will not share the details of the information that I am privy to as a volunteer in the FPLH circle. I understand that my role as a volunteer includes upholding the confidentiality of organization information as appropriate.

I will respect the privacy of our guests/graduates/participants and their children and I will uphold this professional standard at all times.
